BRIEF OVERVIEW

UDAIPUR

Udaipur, also known as the City of Lakes, is a beautiful city in Rajasthan, full of history, culture, and scenic views. It was founded in 1559 by Maharana Udai Singh II and is surrounded by the Aravalli Hills. The city is famous for its lovely lakes, grand palaces, and peaceful vibe, making it a favorite spot for tourists, couples, and culture lovers.

The main attractions include the City Palace, which gives amazing views of Lake Pichola, and a boat ride on the lake lets you see the famous Lake Palace and Jag Mandir. You can also visit Saheliyon Ki Bari, a royal garden, and enjoy local dance shows at Bagore Ki Haveli. For sunset views, head to the Monsoon Palace.

Udaipur also offers tasty Rajasthani food like Dal Baati Churma, Laal Maas, and sweets like Ghevar. With its royal charm, relaxing lakeside spots, and rich culture, Udaipur is perfect for a peaceful and memorable trip, especially in the winter season.
