BRIEF OVERVIEW

CHITKUL AND KALPA

Chitkul, the last inhabited village of Himachal Pradesh's Kinnaur district, is known for its untouched Himalayan beauty. The crystal-clear Baspa River, traditional wooden Kath-Kuni houses, and panoramic snow-covered peaks make it a perfect escape for nature lovers. The village offers a peaceful environment with breathtaking landscapes, ideal for photographers and slow travelers. Chitkul is at its best from April to June and again from September to October, when the weather is pleasant and the views are exceptionally clear. Popular highlights include the Mathi Devi Temple, riverside walks, scenic trails, and the thrilling route towards the India-Tibet border. Nights can get extremely cold, so warm clothing is essential. If you want an offbeat destination filled with serenity, nature, and adventure, Chitkul is a must-visit.

We had booked the package via tourmyholiday for Kedarnath and Badrinath, Yamunotri & Gangotri. We were overall satisfied and happy, but I did share my feedback with Mr. Ashish already that the hotels and driver was awesome. I will definitely recommend you to the others in my family and friends. Thanks for making our Chardham trip memorable.
